PART B

RECOGNISED PROVIDENT FUNDS

[see section 2(52)]

Definitions

1. For the purposes of this Part,-

- (a) “accumulated balance due” to an employee means the balance to his credit, or such portion thereof as may be claimable by him under the regulations of the fund, on the day he ceases to be an employee of the employer maintaining the fund;
- (b) “annual accretion” to the balance to the credit of an employee means the increase to such balance in any year, arising from contributions and interest;
- (c) “balance to the credit” of an employee means the total amount to the credit of his individual account in a provident fund at any time;

- (d) “contribution” means any sum credited by or on behalf of any employee out of his salary, or by an employer out of his own moneys to the individual account of an employee, but does not include any sum credited as interest;
- (e) “employee” means an employee participating in a provident fund, but does not include a personal or domestic servant;
- (f) “employer” means-
- ²²[(i) a company, firm, other association of persons, a Hindu undivided family or an individual engaged in a business or profession the profits and gains whereof are assessable to tax under the head “Income from business or profession”, maintaining a provident fund for the benefit of his or its employees; or]
- ²³[(ii) any diplomatic, consular or trade mission or office of any inter-Governmental organisation located in Bangladesh, maintaining a provident fund for the benefit of Bangladesh, employees of such mission or office.]
- (g) “recognised provident fund” means a provident fund which has been and continues to be recognised by the Commissioner, in accordance with the provisions of this part;
- (h) “regulations of a fund” means the special body of regulations governing the constitution and administration of a particular provident fund; and
- (i) “salary” includes dearness allowance if the terms of employment so provides, but excludes all other allowance and perquisites.

²² Sub-clause (i) was substituted for the sub-clauses (i) and (ii) by section 4 of অর্থ আইন, ১৯৯৬ (১৯৯৬ সনের ১৮ নং আইন).

²³ Existing sub-clause (iii) was renumbered as sub-clause (ii) by section 4 of অর্থ আইন, ১৯৯৬ (১৯৯৬ সনের ১৮ নং আইন), which was added by section 8 of অর্থ আইন, ১৯৮৭ (১৯৮৭ সনের ২৭ নং আইন).

Accordinging and withdrawal of recognition of provident funds

2.²⁴[(1) The Commissioner shall, within ²⁵[fourty five days] from the date of receipt of the application by him for accordng recognition to any provident fund, accord such recognition, failing which the provident fund shall be deemed to have been accorded recognition, and the Commissioner may, if, in his opinion, the provident fund contravenes any of the conditions specified in paragraph 3 and the rules made by the Board in that behalf, withdraw such recognition at any time.]

(2) An order accordng recognition shall take effect on such date as the Commissioner may fix in accordance with any rules the Board may make in this behalf, such date not being later than the last day of the financial year in which the order is made.

(3) An order accordng recognition to a provident fund shall not, unless the Commissioner otherwise directs, be affected by the fact that the fund is subsequently amalgamated with another provident fund on the occurrence of an amalgamation of the undertaking in connections with which the two funds are maintained or that it subsequently absorbs the whole or a part of another provident fund belonging to an undertaking which is wholly or in part transferred to or merged in the undertaking of the employer maintaining the first mentioned fund.

(4) An order withdrawing recognition shall take effect from the day on which it is made.

(5) The Commissioner shall neither refuse nor withdraw recognition of any Provident fund, unless the applicant is given a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

Conditions to be satisfied by a recognised provident fund

3. In order that a provident fund may receive and retain recognition, it shall satisfy the conditions set out below and any other conditions which the Board may prescribe-

- (a) all employees shall be employed in Bangladesh or shall be employed by an employer whose principal place of business is in Bangladesh:

²⁴ Sub-paragraph (1) was substituted by section 6 of অর্থ আইন, ১৯৯৫ (১৯৯৫ সনের ১২ নং আইন).

²⁵ The words "forty five days" were substituted for the words "thirty days" by section 37 of the Finance Act, 2009 (Act. No. X of 2008)(with effect from 1st July, 2008).

Provided that the Commissioner may, if he thinks fit and subject to such conditions, if any, as he thinks proper to attach to the recognition, accord recognition to a fund maintained by an employer whose principal place of business is not in Bangladesh notwithstanding that a proportion not exceeding ten per cent of the employees is employed outside Bangladesh;

- (b) the contributions of an employee in any year shall be a definite proportion of his salary for that year, and shall be deducted by the employer from the employee's salary in that proportion at each periodical payments of such salary in that year and credited to the employee's individual account in the fund;
- (c) the contributions of an employer to the individual account of an employee in any year shall not exceed the amount of the contributions of the employee in that year, and shall be credited to the employee's individual account at intervals not exceeding one year:

Provided that, subject to any rules which the Board may make in this behalf, the Commissioner may, in respect of any particular fund, relax the provisions of this clause-

- (i) so as to permit the payment of larger contributions by an employer to the individual accounts of employees whose salaries do not, in each case, exceed five hundred taka per mensem; and
 - (ii) so as to permit the crediting by employers to the individual accounts of employees of periodical bonuses or other contributions of a contingent nature, where the calculation and payment of such bonuses or other contributions is provided for on definite principles by the regulations of the fund;
- (d) the fund shall consist of contributions as above specified and of donations, if any, received by the trustees, of accumulations thereof, and of interest, credited in respect of such contributions, donations and accumulations, and of securities purchased therewith and of any capital gains arising from the sale, exchange or transfer of capital assets of the fund, and of no other sums;

The Income-tax Ordinance, 1984

- (e) the fund shall be vested in two or more trustees or in the official trustee under a trust which shall not be revocable save with the consent of all the beneficiaries;
- (f) the employer shall not be entitled to recover any sum whatsoever from the fund, save in cases where the employee is dismissed for misconduct or voluntarily leaves his employment otherwise than on account of ill health or other unavoidable cause before the expiration of the term of service specified in this behalf in the regulations of the fund:

Provided that in such cases the recoveries made by the employer shall be limited to the contributions made by him to the individual account of the employee, and to interest credited in respect of such contributions and accumulations thereof, in accordance with the regulations of the fund;

- (g) the accumulated balance due to an employee shall be payable on the day he ceases to be an employee of the employer maintaining the fund;
- (h) save as provided in clause (g), or in accordance with such conditions and restrictions as the Board may prescribe, no portion of the balance to the credit of an employee shall be payable to him.

Annual accretion deemed to be income received by the employee

4. The annual accretion in any year to the balance at the credit of an employee participating in a recognised provident fund shall be deemed to have been received by him in that year and shall be included in his total income for that year, and, subject to the exemptions specified in paragraph 5 shall be liable to tax:

Provided that, for the purposes of section 44(3), out of such annual accretion only the employee's own contributions shall be included in his total income.

Exemption of annual accretion from tax

5. (1) An employee shall not be liable to pay tax on contribution to his individual account in a recognised provident fund, in so far as the aggregate of such contributions in any year does not exceed one-third of his salary for that year.

(2) Interest credited on the accumulated balance of any employee in a recognised provident fund shall be exempt from payment of tax, if and in so far as it does not exceed one-third of the salary of the employee for the year concerned and in so far as it is allowed at a rate not exceeding such rate as the Board may, by notification in the official Gazette, fix in this behalf.

6. Where an employee participating in a recognised provident fund has rendered continuous service with his employer for a period of not less than five years, and the accumulated balance due to him becomes payable, such accumulated balance shall be exempt from payment of tax and shall be excluded from the computation of his total income:

Exemption of accumulated balance from tax

Provided that the Commissioner may allow such exemption and exclusion where the employee has rendered continuous service with the employer for a period of less than five years, if in his opinion, the service has been terminated by reason of the employee's ill health, or by the contraction or discontinuance of the employer's business, or other cause beyond the control of the employee.

7. Where exemption from payment of tax is not allowed under paragraph 6, the Deputy Commissioner of Taxes shall calculate the total of the various sums of tax which would have been payable by the employee in respect of his total income for each of the years concerned if the fund had not been a recognised provident fund, and the amount by which such total exceeds the total of all sums paid by or on behalf of such employee by way of tax for such years shall be payable by the employee in addition to any tax for which he may be liable for the income year in which the accumulated balance due to him becomes payable.

Tax on accumulated balance

8. The trustees of a recognised provident fund, or any other person authorised by the regulations of the fund to make payment of accumulated balance due to employees shall, at the time an accumulated balance due to an employee is paid, deduct therefrom any tax payable under paragraph 7 and any tax payable under paragraph 10(4), and the provisions of Chapter VII shall, so far as may be, apply as if the accumulated balance was income chargeable under the head "Salaries".

Deduction at source of tax on accumulated balance due

The Income-tax Ordinance, 1984

Accounts of recognised
provident funds

9. (1) The accounts of a recognised provident fund shall be maintained by the trustees of the fund and shall be in such form and for such periods and shall contain such particulars as the Board may prescribe.

(2) The accounts shall be open to inspection at all reasonable times by the income tax authorities, and the trustees shall furnish to the Deputy Commissioner of Taxes such abstracts thereof as the Board may prescribe.

Treatment of balance in newly
provident funds

10. (1) Where recognition is accorded to a provident fund with existing balance, an account shall be made of the fund up to the day immediately preceding the day on which the recognition takes effect, showing the balance to the credit of each employee on such day, and containing such further particulars as the Board may prescribe.

(2) The account shall also show in respect of the balance to the credit of each employee the amount thereof which is to be transferred to that employee's account in the recognised provident fund, and such amount (hereinafter called his transferred balance), shall be shown as the balance to his credit in the recognised provident fund on the date on which the recognition of the fund takes effect, and sub-paragraphs (4) and (5) shall apply thereto.

(3) Any portion of the balance to the credit of an employee in the existing fund which is not transferred to the recognised fund shall be excluded from the accounts of the recognised fund and shall be liable to tax in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance other than this Part.

(4) Subject to such rules as the Board may make in this behalf, the Deputy Commissioner of Taxes shall make a calculation of the aggregate of all sums comprised in a transferred balance which would have been liable to tax if this Part had been in force, from the date of the institution of the fund, without regard to any tax which may have been paid on any such sum, and such aggregate, if any, shall be deemed to be income received by the employee in the income year in which the recognition of the fund takes effect, and shall be included in the employee's total income for that income year, and for the purposes of assessment, the remainder of the transferred balance shall be dis-regarded, but no other exemption or relief, by way of refund or otherwise, shall be granted in respect of any sum comprised in such transferred balance:

Provided that, in cases of serious accounting difficulty, the Commissioner shall have power, subject to the said rules, to make a summary calculation of such aggregate.

(5) Notwithstanding anything contained in paragraph 3(h), an employee in order to enable him to pay the amount of tax assessed on his total income as determined under sub-paragraph (4), shall be entitled to withdraw from the balance to his credit in the recognised provident fund a sum not exceeding the difference between such amount and the amount to which he would have been assessed if the transferred balance had not been included in his total income.

(6) Nothing in this paragraph shall affect the rights of the persons administering an unrecognised provident fund or dealing with it, or with the balance to the credit of any individual employee, before recognition is accorded, in any manner which may be lawful.

11. (1) Where an employer who maintains a provident fund (whether recognised or not) for the benefit of his employees and has not transferred the fund or any portion of it, transfers such fund or portion to trustees in trust for the employees participating in the fund, the amount so transferred shall be deemed to be of the nature of capital expenditure.

Treatment of fund transferred by employer to trustee

(2) When an employee participating in such fund is paid the accumulated balance due to him therefrom, any portion of such balance as represents his share in the amount so transferred to the trustee (without addition of interest, and exclusive of the employee's contributions and interest thereon) shall, if the employer has made effective arrangement to secure that tax shall be deducted at source from the amount of such share when paid to the employee, be deemed to be an expenditure by the employer within the meaning of section 29(1) (xxvii), incurred in the income year in which the accumulated balance due to the employee is paid.

Provisions of this Part to prevail against regulations of the fund

12. Where there is a repugnance between any regulation of a recognised provident fund and any provisions of this Part or of the rules made thereunder, the regulation shall, to the extent of the repugnance, be of no effect; and the Commissioner may at any time, require that such repugnance shall be removed from the regulations of the fund.

Appeals

13. (1) An employer objecting to an order of the Commissioner refusing to recognise or an order withdrawing recognition from a provident fund may prefer an appeal, within sixty days of the date of such order, to the Board.

(2) The appeal shall be in such form and shall be verified in such manner as may be prescribed.

Provisions relating to rules

14. In addition to any power conferred by this Part, the Board may make rules-

- (a) prescribing the statements and other information to be submitted with an application for recognition;
- (b) limiting the contributions to a recognised provident fund by employees of a company who are shareholders in the company;
- (c) providing for the assessment by way of penalty of any consideration received by an employee for an assignment of or creation of a charge upon his beneficial interest in a recognised provident fund;
- (d) determining the extent to and the manner in which exemption from payment of tax may be granted in respect of contributions and interest credited to the individual accounts of employees in a provident fund from which recognition has been withdrawn;
- (e) regulating the investment or deposit of the moneys of a recognised provident fund; and
- (f) generally, to carry out the purposes of this Part, and to secure such further control over the recognition of provident funds, and the administration of recognised provident fund as it may deem requisite.

Application of this Part

15. This Part shall not apply to any provident fund to which the Provident Fund Act, 1925 (XIX of 1925), applies.

APPROVED GRATUITY FUNDS

[See section 2(5A)]

1. In this Part, unless the context otherwise requires, the expression “contribution”, “employee”, “employer”, “regulations of a fund” and “salary” have, in relation to gratuity funds, the meaning assigned to those expressions in paragraph 1 of Part B in relation to provident funds. Definitions

2. ²⁷[(1) The Board shall, within ²⁸[four months] from the date of receipt of the application by it for according approval to any gratuity fund, accord such approval, failing which the gratuity fund shall be deemed to have been accorded approval, and the Board may, if, in its opinion, the gratuity fund contravenes any of the conditions specified in paragraph 3 and the rules made by the Board in that behalf, withdraw such recognition at any time.] Approval of gratuity funds

(2) An order according or withdrawing approval shall take effect from such date as the Board may communicate in writing to trustees of the fund.

(3) The Board shall neither refuse nor withdraw approval to any gratuity fund unless it has given the trustees of that fund a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

3. In order that a gratuity fund may receive and retain approval, it shall satisfy the conditions hereinafter specified and any other conditions which the Board may prescribe- Conditions for approval

- (a) the fund shall be a fund established under an irrevocable trust in connection with trade or undertaking carried on in Bangladesh and not less than ninety per cent of the employees of such trade or undertaking shall be employed in Bangladesh;

²⁶ Part C was added by section 7 of অর্থ আইন, ১৯৯৩ (১৯৯৩ সনের ১৮ নং আইন).

²⁷ Sub-paragraph (1) was substituted by section 6 of অর্থ আইন, ১৯৯৯ (১৯৯৯ সনের ১৬ নং আইন).

²⁸ The words “four months” were substituted for the words “three months” by section 40 of the Finance Act, 2009 (Act No. XXXVI of 2009) (with effect from 1st July 2009).

- (b) the fund shall have for its sole purpose the provision of a gratuity to employees in the trade or undertaking on their retirement at or after a specified age or on their becoming incapacitated prior to such retirement, or on termination of their employment after a minimum period of service specified in the regulations of the fund or to the widows, children or dependents of such employees on their death;
- (c) the employer in the trade or undertaking shall be a contributor to the fund; and
- (d) all benefits granted by the fund shall be payable only in Bangladesh.

Application for approval

4. (1) An application for approval of gratuity fund shall be made in writing by the trustees of the fund to the ²⁹[Board] and shall be accompanied by a copy of the instrument under which the fund is established and by two copies of the rules and, where the fund has been in existence during any year or years prior to the financial year in which the application for approval is made, also two copies of the accounts of the fund relating to such prior year or years (not being more than three years immediately preceding the year in which the said application is made) for which such accounts have been made up. The Board may require such further information to be supplied as it thinks proper.

(2) If any alteration in the regulations, constitution, objects or conditions of the fund is made at any time after the date of the application for approval, the trustees of the fund shall forthwith communicate such alteration to the Deputy Commissioner of Taxes mentioned in sub-paragraph (1) and in default of such communication, any approval given shall, unless the Board otherwise orders, be deemed to have been withdrawn from the date on which the alteration took effect.

Exemption of income of gratuity fund from tax

5. Income derived from investments or deposits of an approved gratuity fund and any capital gains arising from the transfer of capital assets of such fund shall be exempt from payment of tax.

²⁹ The word "Board" was substituted for the words "Deputy Commissioner of Taxes by whom the employer is assessable" by section 80 of অর্থ আইন, ২০০০ (২০০০ সনের ১৫ নং আইন).

- 6. Any sum paid by an employer as contribution towards an approved gratuity fund shall be deducted in computing his income, profits and gains for the purpose of assessment. Treatment of contribution by employer
- 7. Where any contributions by an employer (including the interest thereon, if any) are repaid to the employer, the amount so repaid shall be deemed for the purposes of tax to be the income of the employer for the income year in which they are so repaid. Contributions by employer, when deemed to be his income
- 8. The trustees of an approved gratuity fund and any employer who contributes to an approved gratuity fund shall, when required by notice from the Deputy Commissioner of Taxes, furnish, within such period as may be specified in the notice, such return, statement, particulars or information as the Deputy Commissioner of Taxes may require. Particulars to be furnished in respect of gratuity funds
- 9. Where there is a repugnance between any regulation of an approved gratuity fund and any provision of this Part or of the rules made thereunder, the said regulation shall, to the extent of repugnance, be of no effect and the Board may, at any time, require that such repugnance shall be removed from the regulations of the fund. Provisions of this Part to prevail against regulations of the fund
- 10. In addition to any power conferred in this Part, the Board may make rules- Provisions relating to rules
- (a) prescribing the statements and other information to be submitted along with an application for approval; of any assistance (not being in the nature of any loan repayable with or without interest) received by an assessee from Government or any other authority or person, and any deduction or allowance admissible under this Ordinance or the Income-tax Act, 1922 (XI of 1922), shall be excluded;

- (c) where, before the date of acquisition by the assessee, any such asset had at any time been used by any person for the purposes of his business or profession, the actual cost to the assessee shall, except in any case where sub-clause (d) applies, be deemed not to exceed the fair market value thereof;
- (d) where any assessee has succeeded another person in business or profession by inheritance, or where the provisions of section 88 apply, the written down value of an asset shall be computed as if no succession had taken place;
- (e) where an assessee has acquired any plant or machinery (hereinafter referred to as "asset") from a country outside Bangladesh for installation in Bangladesh for the purposes of his business or profession and, in consequence of a change in the rate of exchange at any time after the acquisition of such asset and before full and final payment of any foreign loan, there is an increase or reduction in the liability of the assessee as expressed in Bangladesh currency for making payment towards the whole or a part of the moneys borrowed by him from any person, directly or indirectly, in any foreign currency specifically for the purposes of acquiring the asset (being in either case, the liability existing immediately before the date on which change in the rate of exchange takes effect), the amount by which the liability aforesaid is so increased or reduced during the income year shall be added to, or as the case may be, deducted from the actual cost of the assets, and the amount arrived at after such addition or deduction shall be taken to be the actual cost of the asset;
- (f) where the whole or any part of the liability aforesaid is met, not by the assessee, but, directly or indirectly, by any other person or authority, the liability so met shall not be taken into account for the purposes of clause (e); and

- (g) where the assessee has entered into a contract with an authorised dealer for providing him with a specified sum in a foreign currency on or after a stipulated future date at the rate of exchange specified in the contract to enable him to meet the whole or any part of the liability aforesaid, the amount, if any, to be added to, or deducted from the actual cost of the asset or the amount of expenditure of a capital nature or, as the case may be, the cost of acquisition of the capital asset under this sub-clause shall, in respect of so much of the sum specified in the contract as is available for discharging the liability aforesaid, be computed with reference to the rate of exchange specified therein.

Explanation.-For the purposes of this clause-

- (a) “rate of exchange” means the rate of exchange determined or recognised by the Government for the conversion of Bangladesh currency into foreign currency or foreign currency into Bangladesh currency; and
- (b) “authorised dealer”, “foreign currency” and “Bangladesh currency” have the same meaning as in the Foreign Exchange Regulation Act, 1947 (VII of 1947).

THE FOURTH SCHEDULE

COMPUTATION OF THE PROFITS AND GAINS OF INSURANCE BUSINESS

[See section 28(2) (a)]

1. In the case of any person who carries on, or at any time in the income year carried on, life insurance business, the profits and gains of such person from that business shall be computed separately from his income, profits or gains from any other business. Profits of life insurance to be computed separately
2. The profits and gains of life insurance business, other than pension and annuity business, shall be taken to be either- Computation of profits and gains of life insurance business
 - (a) the gross external incomings of the income year from that business less the management expenses of that year, or

- (b) the annual average of the surplus arrived at by adjusting the surplus or deficit disclosed by the actuarial valuation made for the last inter-valuation period ending before the year for which the assessment is to be made, So as to exclude from it any surplus or deficit included therein which was made in any earlier inter-valuation period and any expenditure other than expenditure which may, under the provisions of section 29 of this Ordinance, be allowed for, in computing the profits and gains of a business, whichever is the greater:

Provided that the amount to be allowed as management expenses shall not exceed-

- (a) 7 per cent of the premiums received during the income year in respect of single premium life insurance policies, plus
- (b) in respect of the first year's premiums received in respect of other life insurance policies for which the number of annual premiums payable is less than twelve, or for which the number of year during which premiums are payable is less than twelve, for each such premium or each such year, 7 per cent of such first year's premium or received during the income year, plus
- (c) 90 per cent of the first year's premium received during the ⁶⁸[income year] in respect of all other life insurance policies, plus
- (d) 12 per cent of all renewal premiums received during the income year.

Computation of profits and gains of pension and annuity business

3. The profits and gains of pension and annuity business shall be taken to be the annual average of the surplus computed in the manner laid in paragraph 2(b).

Deductions

4. In computing the surplus,-

- (a) under paragraph 2(b), for the purpose of life insurance business, three-fourths of the amounts paid to or reserved for or expended on behalf of policy-holders, shall be allowed as a deduction, and under paragraph 3, the amounts paid to or reserved for or expended on behalf of the members of an approved superannuation fund shall be allowed as a deduction:

⁶⁸ The words "income year" were substituted for the words "previous year" by Corrigendum issued vide Bangladesh Gazette, dated 19th August, 1984.

Provided that in the first such computation made under this paragraph of any such surplus, no account shall be taken of any such amounts to the extent to which they are paid out of or in respect of any surplus brought forward from a previous inter-valuation period:

Provided further that if any amount so reserved for policy-holders or members of an approved superannuation fund, as the case may be, ceases to be so reserved, and is not paid to or expended on behalf of policy-holders or members of an approved superannuation fund, as the case may be, one-half or three-fourths of such amount or the entire amount, as the case may be, if it has been previously allowed as a deduction, shall be treated as part of the surplus for the period in which the said amount ceased to be so reserved;

(b) any amount either written off or reserved in the accounts or through the actuarial valuation balance-sheet to meet depreciation of or loss on the realisation of securities or other assets, shall be allowed as a deduction, and any sums taken credit for in the accounts or actuarial valuation balance-sheet on account of appreciation of or gains on the realisation of the securities or other assets shall be included in the surplus:

Provided that if, upon investigation, it appears to the Deputy Commissioner of Taxes after consultation with the Controller of Insurance that having due regard to be necessity for making reasonable provision for bonuses to participating policy-holders and for contingencies, the rate of interest or other factor employed in determining the liability in respect of outstanding policy is materially inconsistent with the valuation of the securities and other assets so as artificially to reduce the surplus, such adjustment shall be made to the allowance for depreciation of or to the amount to be included in the surplus in respect of appreciation of, such securities and other assets as shall increase the surplus for the purposes of these paragraphs to a figure which is fair and just;

⁶⁹[(c) interest received in respect of any securities of the Government which have been issued with the condition that interest thereon shall not be liable to tax shall be excluded.]

Adjustment of tax paid by deduction at source

5. Where for any year an assessment of the profits and gains of life insurance business is made in accordance with the annual average of a surplus disclosed by a valuation for an inter-valuation period exceeding twelve months, then, in computing the tax payable for that year, credit shall not be given in accordance with section 62 for the tax paid in the income year, but credit shall be given for the annual average of the tax paid by deduction at source from interest on securities or otherwise during such period.

Computation of profits and gains of other insurance business

6. ⁷⁰[(1) The profits and gains of any business of insurance other than life insurance shall be taken to be the balance of the profits disclosed by the annual accounts, which are required to be prepared complying the provisions of the ⁷¹[বীমা আইন, ২০১০ (২০১০ সনের ১৩ নং আইন) (Insurance Act, 2010 (Act No. 13 of 2010)], after adjusting such balance so as to exclude from it any expenditure, other than expenditure which may under the provisions of section 29 of the Income tax Ordinance, 1984 be allowed for, in computing the profits and gains of a business. Profits and losses on the realisation of investments, and depreciation and appreciation of the value of investments shall be dealt with as provided in paragraph 4 for the business of life insurance.]

(2) Where a company sets aside a portion of its income, profits and gains to meet exceptional losses, so much of such portion as does not exceed ten per cent of the premium income of the year in which it is set aside shall be deducted from the balance of the profits referred to in sub-paragraph (1).

(3) The amount deducted under sub-paragraph (2) in any year, together with the amounts, if any, deducted or carried to a reserve in earlier years to meet exceptional losses (as reduced by the amounts, if any, paid out of such amounts or reserve to meet exceptional losses) shall not exceed the premium income of that year or the average premium income of the three years immediately preceding that year, whichever is the higher.

⁶⁹ Sub-paragraph (c) was substituted by section 6 of অর্থ আইন, ১৯৯৫ (১৯৯৫ সনের ১২ নং আইন).

⁷⁰ Sub-paragraph (1) was substituted by section 33 of অর্থ আইন, ২০০৫ (২০০৫ সনের ১৬ নং আইন).

⁷¹ The words, comma, figures and brackets “বীমা আইন, ২০১০ (২০১০ সনের ১৩ নং আইন) (Insurance Act, 2010 (Act No. 13 of 2010))” were substituted for the words, comma, figures, letters and brackets “Insurance Act, 1938 (IV of 1938)” by section 55(a) of the Finance Act, 2012 (Act No. XXVI of 2012) (with effect from 1st July, 2012).

(4) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Ordinance, where any amount is paid, appropriated or diverted of out or from the amounts deducted under sub-paragraph (2) for purposes other than the meeting of an exceptional loss, such amount shall, together with the other premium income, if any, of the company for the year in which such payment, appropriation or diversion takes place, be deemed to be the premium income of the company for that year; and in the event of the liquidation of the company or the discontinuance of the business to which this paragraph applies, whichever is the earlier, the aggregate of the amounts deducted under sub-paragraph (2) (as reduced by the payments made out of such amounts to meet exceptional losses) shall together with the other income, if any, of the company for the year in which it goes into liquidation or in which such business is discontinued, be deemed to be the income of the company for that year.

Explanation.-For the purposes of this paragraph, “exceptional loss” means the amount by which the aggregate loss in any year exceeds fifty per cent of the premium income of that year or fifty per cent of the average premium income of the three years immediately preceding that year, whichever is the higher.

7. The profits and gains of the branches in Bangladesh of an insurance company not resident in Bangladesh in the absence of more reliable data, may be deemed to be the proportion of the total world income of the company corresponding to the proportion which its premium income derived from Bangladesh bears to its total premium income. For the purpose of this paragraph, the total world income of life insurance companies not resident in Bangladesh whose profits are periodically ascertained by actuarial valuation shall be computed in the manner laid down in these paragraphs for the computation of the profits and gains of life insurance business carried on in Bangladesh.

Profits and gains of non-resident person

8. These paragraphs apply to the assessment of the profits of any business of insurance carried on by a mutual insurance association.

Mutual Insurance Associations

Definition

9. For the purposes of this Schedule,-

- (a) “gross external incomings” means the full amount and incomings from interest, dividends, fines and fees and all other incomings from whatever source derived (except premium received from policy-holders and interest and dividends on any annuity fund) and includes also profits from reversions and on the sale or the granting of annuities, but excludes profits on the realisation of securities or other assets:

Provided that incomings, including the annual value of the property occupied by the assessee, which but for the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 28 would have been assessable under section 24, shall be computed upon the basis laid down in the last named section, and that there shall be allowed from such gross incomings such deductions as are permissible under that section;

- (b) “management expenses” means the full amount of expenses (including commissions) incurred exclusively in the management of the business of life insurance, and in the case of a company carrying on other classes of business as well as the business of life insurance in addition thereto, a fair proportion of the expenses incurred in the general management of the whole business. Bonuses or other sums paid to or reserved on behalf of policy-holders, depreciation of, and losses on the realisation of securities or other assets and any expenditure other than expenditure which may under the provisions of section 29 be allowed for in computing the profits and gains of a business are not management expenses for the purposes of this Schedule;
- (c) “life insurance business” means life insurance business as defined in section ⁷²[5(2) of বীমা আইন, ২০১০ (২০১০ সনের ১৩ নং আইন)];
- (d) “securities” includes stocks and shares;
- (e) “pension and annuity business” means any life insurance business relating to a contract with the trustees of an approved superannuation fund, where such contract is-
- (i) entered into only for the purposes of such fund, and ⁷² The words, figures, letters and brackets “5(2) of বীমা আইন, ২০১০ (২০১০ সনের ১৩ নং আইন)” were substituted for the words, figures, letters and brackets “2(II) of the Insurance Act, 1938 (IV of 1938)” by section 55(b) of the Finance Act, 2012 (Act No. XXVI of 2012) (with effect from 1st July, 2012).

- (ii) so framed that the liabilities undertaken thereunder by the person carrying on the insurance business correspond with the liabilities against which the contract is intended to secure such fund.

THE FIFTH SCHEDULE

PART A

COMPUTATION OF THE PROFITS OR GAINS FROM THE EXPLORATION AND PRODUCTION OF PETROLEUM AND THE DETERMINATION OF THE TAX THEREON

[See section 28 (2) (b)]

1. Where any person carries on or is deemed under an agreement with the Government to be carrying on any business which consists of or includes exploration and production of petroleum, the profits or gains of such person therefrom shall be computed separately from his income, profits or gains from any other business. Profits from exploration and production of petroleum to be computed separately
2. Subject to the provisions of section 29, the profits and gains for the purposes of paragraph 1, shall be computed after making the following additional allowances, namely:-
 - (a) where a person incurs any expenditure on searching for, or on discovering and testing a petroleum deposit or winning access thereto, but the search, exploration or enquiry upon which the expenditure is incurred is given up before the commencement of commercial production, such expenditure allocable to a surrender area and to the drilling of a dry hole shall be deemed to be lost at the time of the surrender of the area or the completion of the dry hole, as the case may be. A portion of such loss as provided for any agreement between any such person and the Government, shall be allowed in either of the following ways:-
 - (i) such portion of the said loss in any year shall be set off against income, profits or gains from business or under any other head of income, other than income from dividend, of that year. If the loss cannot be wholly set off in this manner, the portion not so set off shall be carried forward to the following year and set off against such income, profits or gains, for that year in the same manner; and if it cannot be wholly so set off, the amount not so set off shall be carried forward to the following year and so on; but no loss shall be so carried forward for more than six years;

- (ii) such portion of the said loss in any year shall be set off against income, profits or gains of the same business of the income year in which commercial production commences. If the loss cannot be wholly set off against the profit of the same business for that year, the loss not so set off shall be carried forward to the following year and set off against the profits or gains, if any, of the assessee from the same business for that year; and if it cannot be wholly so set off, the amount of loss not so set off shall be carried forward to the following year, and so on; but no loss shall be so carried forward for more than ten years;
- (b) after the commencement of commercial production, all expenditure prior thereto not deemed to be lost under clause (a) and not represented by physical assets in use at the time the commercial production commenced, shall be allowed as deductions. The portion of such deduction to be allowed in any year shall be such amount (not being greater than 10 per cent of the aggregate amount deductible) as may be selected by the assessee;
- (c) expenditure incurred after the commencement of commercial production in connection with production and exploration shall be allowed as a deduction:

Provided that such expenditure on assets with respect to which depreciation is allowable shall not be deducted; and depreciation shall be allowable on such assets in accordance with the provisions of the Third Schedule. Depreciation shall also be allowed in respect of the expenditure referred to in the preceding clause on physical assets acquired prior to the date on which commercial production commenced, which were in use on that date, as if the assets were newly acquired at their original cost at the time of commencement of commercial production:

Provided further that where any depreciation allowance has been allowed before the commencement of commercial production, the original cost as aforesaid shall be reduced by the amount of such allowance;

- (d) if, in any year, the deductions admissible under section 29, and the foregoing clauses (b) and (c) of this paragraph, exceed the gross receipts from the sale of petroleum produced in Bangladesh such excess shall be set off against other income, not being a dividend, and carried forward in the manner and subject to the limitations laid down in sections 37, 38 and 42.

3. In determining the profits or gains for any year ending after the date on which commercial production commenced, an additional allowance shall be made equal to 15 per cent of the gross receipts representing the well-head value of the production from the business or part of the business to which the provisions of this Part apply:

Depletion allowance

Provided that such allowance shall not exceed one-half of the profits or gains as computed without the deduction of such allowance.

4. (1) The sum of payments to the Government and taxes on income in respect of the profits or gains derived from the business or part of the business to which the provisions of this Part apply, for any year of assessment, shall be as provided for in the agreement with the assessee ⁷³[* * *].

Payments to the Government and taxes

(2) For the purposes of this paragraph, “payments to the Government” means amounts payable to the Government or to any Governmental authority in Bangladesh,

(b) in respect of any tax or levy imposed in Bangladesh particularly applicable to oil production or to extractive industries, or any of them, and not generally imposed upon all industrial and commercial activities.

5. If in respect of any year, the aggregate of the sum of payments to the Government and taxes on income is greater or less than the amount provided for in the agreement referred to in paragraph 4(1), an additional income tax shall be payable by the assessee or an abatement of tax shall be allowed to the assessee, as the case may be, so as to make the aggregate of the sum of payments to the Government and taxes on income equal to the amount provided for in the agreement.

Adjustments of payments to the Government and taxes

⁷³ The words and figures “subject to the condition that it shall not be less than 50 per cent of the profits or gains derived from the said business or part of the business before deduction of payments to the Government and the additional allowance referred to in paragraph 3 ” were omitted by section 12 of অর্থ আইন, ১৯৮৯ (১৯৮৯ সনের ৩৬ নং আইন).

⁷⁴ Clause (a) was omitted by section 12 of অর্থ আইন, ১৯৮৯ (১৯৮৯ সনের ৩৬ নং আইন).

- Carry forward of excess payments 6. If, in respect of any year, the payments to the Government exceed the amount provided for in the agreement referred to in paragraph 4(1), so much of the excess as consists of any tax or levy referred to in paragraph 4(2)(b) shall be carried forward and treated as payments to the Government for the purposes of paragraph 4 and 5 for the succeeding year.
- Sale price of oil 7. For the purposes of computing income under this Part, the “well-head value” shall be adopted as the sale price of the oil.
- Definitions 8. For the purposes of this Part,-
- (a) “commercial production” means production as determined by the Government;
 - ⁷⁵(b) “petroleum” has the same meaning as assigned to it in the Bangladesh Petroleum Act, 1974 (LXIX of 1974), but does not include refined petroleum products;
 - (c) “surrender” means the termination of rights with respect to an area including the expiration of rights according to the terms of an agreement;
 - (d) “surrendered area” means an area with respect to which the rights of a person have terminated by surrender or by assignment or by termination of the business;
 - (e) “well-head value” has the meaning assigned to it in the agreement between the assessee and the Government and, in the absence of its definition in the agreement, the meaning assigned to it in the Petroleum (Production) Rules, 1949.

PART B

COMPUTATION OF PROFITS AND GAINS FROM THE EXPLORATION AND EXTRACTION OF MINERAL DEPOSITS (OTHER THAN OIL AND OIL GAS) IN BANGLADESH

[See section 28(2)(c)]

- Profits from exploration and extraction of mineral deposits to be computed separately 1. Where any person carries on the business of the exploration or extraction of mineral deposits of a wasting nature other than oil and oil gas in Bangladesh, the profits and gains of such business, shall be computed separately from his income, profits or gains from other business, if any, and such business shall, for the purposes of these paragraphs, be treated as a separate undertaking (hereinafter referred to as such undertaking).

⁷⁵ Clause (b) was substituted by section 12 of অর্থ আইন, ১৯৮৯ (১৯৮৯ সনের ৩৬ নং আইন).

2. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Part, the profits and gains of such undertaking shall be computed in accordance with the provisions of section 29. Computation of profits

(2) All expenditure on prospecting and exploration incurred by such undertaking up to the stage of commercial production shall, to the extent it cannot be set off against any other income of the said undertaking or any other income in accordance with section 37, be treated as a loss.

(3) The loss computed in the manner specified in sub-paragraph (2) shall be set off against the income of such undertaking after the commencement of commercial production so, however, that if it cannot be wholly set off against the income, profits or gains of the said undertaking for the income year in which the commercial production was commenced, the portion not so set off shall be carried forward to the following year, and so on; but no less shall be carried forward for more than ten years beginning with the year in which commercial production was commenced.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs 3 and 6 of the Third Schedule, after the commencement of commercial production, depreciation allowance in respect of machinery and plant purchased or acquired for extracting the or shall be allowed as a deduction against profits and gains of the year in which they are used for the first time in an amount equal to the original cost of such asset; where such allowance cannot be made in full in any year owing to there being no profits or gains chargeable for that year or owing to the profits and gains so chargeable being less than the allowance, the allowance or part of the allowance to which effect has not been given, as the case may be, shall be added to the amount of allowance for depreciation for the following year and deemed to be part of that allowance or, if there is no allowance for that year, be deemed to be allowance for that year, and so on for succeeding years:

Provided that where any loss has also to be carried forward under sub-paragraph (3), effect shall first be given to that paragraph.

Depletion allowance

3. (1) In computing the profits and gains of such undertaking for any year, an additional allowance (hereinafter referred to as the depletion allowance) shall be made equal to 15 per cent of the total income of such undertaking (before the deduction of such allowance) or 50 per cent of the capital employed in such undertaking (such capital being computed in accordance with such provisions as may be made by the Board for the purpose of this paragraph), whichever is the less.

(2) No deduction on account of the depletion allowance shall be allowed under sub-paragraph (1) unless an amount equal to the depletion allowance is debited to the profit and loss account of the relevant income year and credited to a reserve account to be utilised for the development and expansion of such undertaking.

(3) Where an allowance by way of depletion allowance has been made in any year and subsequently it is utilised for a purpose not specified in sub-paragraph (2), the amount originally allowed shall be deemed to have been wrongly allowed and the Deputy Commissioner of Taxes may, notwithstanding anything contained in this Ordinance, recompute the total income of the assessee for the relevant income year and the provisions of sections 93 and 94 shall, so far as may be, apply thereto, the period of four years specified in section 94 being reckoned from the end of the income year in which the amount was so utilised.

Tax exemption of profits from refining or concentrating mineral deposits

4. (1) Where such undertaking is also engaged in the business of refining or concentrating in Bangladesh the mineral deposits extracted by it in Bangladesh, so much of the profits and gains (hereinafter referred to in sub-paragraph (2) as the said amount of profits and gains) derived from such business as does not exceed five per cent of the capital employed in such business, such capital being computed in accordance with such rules as may be made by the Board for the purposes of this paragraph, shall be exempt from tax.

(2) Where the profits and gains of such business, computed for any year of assessment cover a period which is less or more than one year, the amount of profits and gains exempt under sub-paragraph (1) shall be the amount which bears the same proportion to the said amount of profits and gains at the same proportion as the said period bears to a period of one year.

(3) The profits and gains of the business to which this paragraph applies shall be computed in accordance with the provisions of sections 28 and 29.

(4) Nothing contained in this paragraph shall apply to an undertaking which is formed by the splitting up, or the reconstruction or reconstitution of, a business already in existence or by the transfer to a new business of any building, machinery or plant used in a business which was being carried on, on or before the first day of July, 1983.

(5) The provisions of this paragraph shall apply to the assessment for the year next following the income year in which commercial production is commenced, or the loss under paragraph 2(3) or allowance, if any, under paragraph 2(4), as the case may be, has been set off or deducted in full, whichever is the later, and for the next following four years.

THE SIXTH SCHEDULE

THE SEVENTH SCHEDULE

COMPUTATION OF RELIEF FROM INCOME TAX BY WAY OF CREDIT IN RESPECT OF FOREIGN TAX

[See section 144(4)]

1. (1) In this Schedule,-

Definitions

- (a) “Bangladesh tax” means income tax charged in accordance with the provisions of the Income Tax Ordinance, 1984;
- (b) “foreign tax” means, in relation to any country an agreement with the Government of which has effect by virtue of section 144 of this Ordinance, any tax chargeable under the laws of that country for which credit may be allowed under the agreement;

(c) “foreign income tax” means any foreign tax which corresponds to income tax.

(2) Where, an agreement having effect by virtue of the said section 144, provides for any tax chargeable under the laws of the country concerned being treated as income tax, that tax shall be treated as foreign tax or foreign tax other than foreign income tax, as the case may be.

(3) Any reference in this Schedule to foreign tax or foreign income tax shall be construed, in relation to credit to be allowed under any agreement, as a reference only to tax chargeable under the laws of the country with the Government of which the agreement was made.

Credit against Bangladesh tax

2. Subject to the provisions of this Schedule, where, under an agreement concluded under section 144, credit is to be allowed against Bangladesh tax chargeable in respect of any income, the amount of the Bangladesh taxes so chargeable shall, subject to the provisions of the said agreement, be reduced by the amount of the credit.

Credit
admissible to residents

3. Credit shall not be allowed against income tax for any year of assessment unless the persons in respect of whose income the tax is chargeable is resident for the period on the basis of which income is assessed.

Computation of
credit

4. The amount of the credit to be allowed for foreign tax against Bangladesh tax in respect of any income shall not exceed the amount which would be arrived at by applying the average rate of such tax to the double taxed income.

Effect on computation of income on allowance of

5. (1) Where the income includes a dividend and, under the agreement, foreign tax, whether chargeable directly or by deduction in respect of the dividend or not, is to be taken into account in considering whether any, and if so, how much, credit is to be allowed against the Bangladesh tax in respect of the dividend, the amount of the income shall be treated as increased by the amount of the foreign tax appropriate to the dividend which falls to be taken into account in computing the amount of the credit.

(2) Where the amount of the income is to be treated as increased under sub-paragraph (1), the foreign tax not chargeable directly or by deduction which is to be taken into account, shall be so much be that borne by the body corporate paying the dividend upon the profits for the period for which the dividend is paid, or, if the dividend is not paid for a specified period, the profits of the last period for which accounts of the body corporate were made up which ended before the dividend became payable.

Explanation.-In this sub-paragraph “paid” means paid, credited or distributed or deemed to have been paid, credited or distributed.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in the preceding provisions of this paragraph and in section 30, where part of the foreign tax in respect of the income cannot be allowed as a credit against the Bangladesh tax, the amount of the income shall be treated for the purposes of income tax as reduced by that part of that foreign tax.

(4) Where the income tax payable depends on the amount received in Bangladesh the said amount shall be treated as increased by the amount of the credit allowable against income tax.

(5) In computing the total income of a person for the purpose of determining the rate mentioned in paragraph 4, sub-paragraphs (1) and (3) of this paragraph shall not apply, and for the reference in sub-paragraph (4) of this paragraph, to the amount of the credit allowance against income tax, there shall be substituted a reference to the amount of the foreign tax in respect of the income.

6. (1) Subject to the provisions of sub-paragraph (2), any claim for an allowance by way of credit for foreign tax in respect of any income shall be made to the Deputy Commissioner of Taxes of the district in which the claimant is chargeable to income tax not later than two years from the end of the year of assessment for which that income falls to be charged to Bangladesh tax or would fall so to be charged if any such tax were chargeable in respect thereof.

Limitation for claim

(2) Where, the amount of any credit given under the agreement is rendered excessive or insufficient by reason of any adjustment of the amount of any tax payable either in Bangladesh or under the laws of any other country, nothing in the Ordinance limiting the time for the making of assessment or claims for refund shall apply to any assessment or claim to which the adjustment gives rise, being an assessment or claim made not later than two years from the time when all such assessment, adjustments and other determinations have been made whether in Bangladesh or elsewhere, as are material in determining whether any, and if so, how much, credit falls to be given.

Appeal

7. A person claiming an allowance by way of credit for foreign tax may appeal to the Appellate Joint Commissioner against any order of the Deputy Commissioner of Taxes disallowing the claim either wholly or in part, within thirty days of the date on which the order of the Deputy Commissioner of Taxes was communicated to the claimant, and the provisions of Chapter XIX of the Ordinance shall, with the necessary modifications, apply accordingly.

Provisions as to the deduction of tax at source

8. (1) The provisions of this paragraph shall have effect where an agreement having effect under section 144 of the Ordinance provides for the exemption from Bangladesh tax of any class of income arising to persons resident in the country with the Government of which the agreement is made, being income from which deduction of tax is required to be made under the Ordinance.

(2) Any person who pays income of any such class (referred to in this paragraph as "the Bangladesh payer") to a person in the said country who is beneficially entitled to the income (such person being referred to in this paragraph as "the non-resident") may be required, by notice given by or under the direction of the Board, to pay any such income to the non-resident without deduction of tax, and where such notice is given, any income from any source specified in the notice, being income for a year for which the agreement has effect, which the Bangladesh payer, the date on which the notice was communicated, pays to the non-resident whose name is specified therein, shall, subject to the following provisions of this paragraph, be paid without deduction of tax.

(3) Any notice given under sub-paragraph (2) may be expressed to become ineffective if certain specified events happen or, whether so expressed or not, may be cancelled by a notice of cancellation given by or under the direction of the Board, and if, to the knowledge of the Bangladesh payer, any of those events happens or if such notice of cancellation is given, any payment made to the non-resident by the Bangladesh payer after the happening of that event becomes known to the Bangladesh payer, or after the date on which that notice was communicated to the Bangladesh payer, as the case may be, shall be subject to deduction of tax in accordance with the Ordinance.

(4) If it is discovered, after a notice has been given under sub-paragraph (2) that the non-resident is not entitled to exemption from tax in respect of income from any source specified in the notice, any tax which, but for the notice, would have been deductible from any payment made to the non-resident by the Bangladesh payer but by virtue of the notice has not been so deducted shall, if a deduction to that effect is given by or under the direction of the Board, be deducted by the Bangladesh payer out of so much of the first payment made to the non-resident after the date on which the direction was communicated to the Bangladesh payer as remains after the deduction of any tax deductible therefrom under the Ordinance, and any balance which cannot be deducted out of the first such payment shall be deducted, subject to the same limitation, out of the next such payment, and so on, until the whole of the tax (the amount of which shall be specified in the direction) has been deducted.

(5) Any tax which the Bangladesh payer is required to deduct under sub-paragraph (4) shall be paid to the Government and the provisions of Chapter VII of the Ordinance relating to deduction of tax at source shall, with necessary modifications, apply accordingly.

(6) A notice may be given under sub-paragraph (2) where income is paid to a person authorised to receive such income on behalf of a non-resident, and in such a case, the reference in this paragraph to payment to the non-resident shall be treated as including references to payment to that person.
